

It is wonderful that the TSRI alumni association of Japan has grown to such an extent and that it has organized its first formal meeting!

We are very pleased with and honored by the past and present students, postdoctoral associates, and senior research associates that we have had the opportunity to work with.

We wish we were there to celebrate your first formal meeting!

Dale L. Boger